Guidelines for exhibiting artwork
at Central Rappahannock
Regional Library

 Central Rappahannock Regional Library
INSPIRING LIFELONG LEARNING

Thank you for your interest in exhibiting your art
at Central Rappahannock
Regional Library.

Artists and groups may exhibit once per calendar year at only one branch.

Your pieces must be clean and presentable.

Exhibitors may be included on our web page,
librarypoint.org/arts

The library takes no
commission and assumes no responsibility for the sale of your work. We post your contact information alongside your work, so that customers can contact you directly.

The library takes no
responsibility for loss or damage to artwork.

FRAMING REQUIREMENTS

Works must be framed and ready to hang. We cannot hang your art unless it is framed to our specifications.

The library can display artwork that can be hung on a wall and weighs less than 13 lbs.

We cannot display sculptural or other 3D pieces that cannot be hung by picture wire.

Your pieces must be properly framed with a hook on each side, which we will wire from.
Wooden frames must have two screw eyes 2" from the top
on the back.

Metal frames must have hooks slid to the top of the frame.

Unacceptable frames:

- gallery clips
- frames with stands
on the back
- plastic frames

TO APPLY FOR A SHOW

Send an email to anna.lowry@crml.org

Subject: Artists in the Library

Include your name, phone number, and
email address.

Attach 3-5 photos representative of the work you would like to display.

The Artists in the Library committee will review your photos and contact you with a decision.

Upon acceptance, the library will work with you to schedule dates and a location for your exhibit.
