Collections

The library provides a circulating collection of works by authors residing in the CRRL service area (Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania, Stafford, and Westmoreland). Library visitors will find works by local authors through the library catalog and on occasional READ LOCAL displays. Authors, if you would like us to consider adding your work, just leave a donated copy at the Research Desk at any branch with this form attached. Please understand that we are unable to return copies not selected.

Events

Authors residing in the CRRL service area may be considered for an informal Local Author @ the Library book signing and book sale event at a table in the library lobby. Please visit librarypoint.org/local-authors to request a book signing.

The library regularly holds in-person and virtual events to support our writing community, including Inklings Writers' Critique Groups. Visit librarypoint.org/events for current listings.

Please email local.authors@crrl.org if you would like to be added to the Library's Local Author Database to be notified of future events and updates.
