MARTHA HUTZEL ■ DIRECTOR

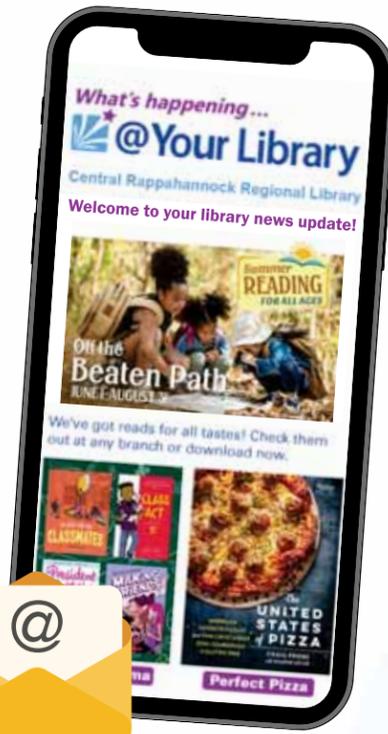

Back-to-school time starts at the library. Our Learn at Home page has homework resources galore for all ages, so students will be ready to rule at school.

August is our last month for the Summer Reading Challenge, but it's not too late to sign up. Log books read, write reviews, or do missions to stay active and qualify for prize drawings every week. Children and teens who also sign up for the new Back-to-School Reading Challenge will have their reading count for both challenges.

Love a bargain? Make it a weekly habit to drop by our Friends of the Library Center & Bookshop for great deals on books and media for your personal collection. Every purchase supports your library! You can also choose it as your holds-pickup location, if you like.

Don't miss a thing! Learn all about the latest library happenings via your inbox twice a month when you sign up for CRRL eNews.
