welcome

MARTHA HUTZEL ■ DIRECTOR

There's a lot to love at the library in September. Check out the new Grow a Reader packs for littlest learners and celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with culturally informative stories.

Doing is such a fun part of lifelong learning! CRRL is sponsoring three contests this fall that encourage creativity. All ages can design a far-flinging trebuchet to compete in our annual Launch It! contest. We also host the Stop Motion Video Contest for grades 6 to 12. Those ages 18 and up are invited to enter our juried Uniquely Spotsylvania art show.

Our virtual Author Talks series continues in September, featuring a parenting expert and bestselling novelists. View the schedule and sign up online, read the books, and post questions to the authors. Have to miss a favorite? These talks are archived for viewing at your convenience!

9/11 Memorial Exhibition

All branches throughout September

An educational exhibition that presents the history of 9/11, its origins, and its ongoing implications through the personal stories of those who witnessed and survived the attacks.

Told across 14 posters, this exhibition includes archival photographs and images of artifacts from the 9/11 Memorial and Museum's permanent collection. It explores the consequences of terrorism on individual lives and communities at the local, national, and international levels and encourages critical thinking about the legacies of 9/11.

The poster exhibition was developed by the 9/11 Memorial and Museum and has been made possible in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities: Democracy Demands Wisdom. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this exhibition do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.
